

CHRISTMAS LULL IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

Astoria on the night of January 6 for the benefit of the free beds for consumptives in the annex of the Loomis Sanatorium. Among those who have taken boxes and tickets are Mrs. Arthur J. Moulton, Mrs. John Dineley Prince, Miss May Moulton, Miss Eleanor B. Townsend, Miss Mary Ostrander and Miss Elizabeth V. Cockcroft. Tickets may be obtained of Miss Florence V. Doane, 18 West Thirty-fourth street.

An entertainment of January 7, which is attracting the attention of society, will be the concert at the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of the New York Orthopedic Hospital and Dispensary. It will be the first time in four years that any outside assistance has been asked and the managers of the hospital feel that their efforts will be rewarded. The artists engaged are Miss Lucioza Bori and Pasquale Amato of the Metropolitan Opera and Leo Erdosy, violinist.

Among those who have already subscribed are Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Hamilton McK. Twombly, W. Fellows Morgan, Henry Burden, Charles Carroll Jackson, Edward D. Adams, Percy R. Pyne, J. Nelson Borland, John H. Foster, John Henry Hammond, Charles H. Edwards, James J. Goodwin, James W. Ellsworth, Joseph H. Choate, Gerald Hoyt, Frank S. Witherbee, H. Fairfield Osborn, W. Rathbone Bacon, William Jay, Walter James, Stuyvesant Fish, James A. Burden, Henry M. Tilford, August Belmont, John B. Duer, Winfield Scott, Robert Bacon, Archibald D. Russell, George G. Haven, William K. Vanderbilt, Oliver G. Jennings, Cornelius C. Cuyler, Elliott F. Shepard, Collis P. Huntington, Edwin D. Morgan, William B. O. Field, J. Horace Harding and Benjamin Brewster; the Misses Eleanor Cuyler, Sybil Kane, Caroline Beekman, Florence Rieff, Ann Burr Jennings, Margaret Benson, Maud Leland, Maria Dehon and Ella Borland, Thomas F. Ryan, Howard Willets, A. Eugene Gallatin, Eugene Delano, W. Mac Neill Rodewald, Charles E. Sampson, Brock Trowbridge, Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., J. R. De Lamar and Henry Walters.

Comedies, tableaux vivants and music will attract many to the assembly room of the Colony Club on the night of January 8, for the benefit of the Huguenot Society of America. The proceeds will be devoted to the library fund of the society, of which Col. William Jay is president, T. J. Oakley Rhinelanders treasurer and Mrs. James M. Lawton secretary.

Many valuable relics belong to the society which cannot be shown for lack of space, and a number of rare books need cataloguing. It is for the development of this work that funds are needed.

Among those who are taking a particular interest in the entertainment are Mrs. William Jay, William Rhinelanders, James M. Lawton, Allen Marquand, George W. Jenkins, William D. Burton, Anson P. Atterbury, R. T. Haines Halsey, Hamilton Fairfax, Charles F. Roe, J. Warren Goddard, Arthur Sullivan, Russell H. Moore, Quincy Gilmore, D. Phoenix Ingraham, J. R. Peabody and Sanford Bissell, Miss Julia Chester Wells and Miss Elsie Schuyler Crane.

The use of the assembly room has been given through the courtesy of Mrs. Jenkins. Mrs. William H. Leffers of 308 Lexington avenue will have tickets for sale.

Though the holidays will be somewhat free from entertainments for charity there will be given in the ballroom of the Plaza to-morrow a Christmas matinee in aid of the Bide-A-Wee Home for Friendless Animals under the patronage of women prominent in society. The programme will be given by professionals and amateurs. Mrs. Julian McCarty Little will sing in costume French and English songs. Several of this season's debutantes will sell flowers and souvenir programmes to help the cause. Tickets are being sold at the home, 410 East Thirty-eighth street, at $2, $3 and $5, and boxes at $30 and $50.

Included among the patronesses are Mrs. John J. Mason, Mrs. J. Todhunter Thompson, Mrs. George J. Gould, Mrs. Frederick Edey, Mrs. John Hays Hammond, Mrs. Ben Ahl Haggin, Mrs. E. Elmer Black and Mrs. Lauterbach.

Among the first of the charity entertainments of the new year will be the concert in the ballroom of the Plaza on January 8 in aid of the D. Y. N. T. Society, an organization composed of women who do works of charity at the Settlement House, 18 Leroy street. Mme. Rosa Olitzka, formerly of the Metropolitan Opera; Miss Ruth Draper in her original monologues and Fern Zimbalist, violinist, are the artists who will appear.

The society was formed many years ago and incorporated under the title of Do Ye Next Thyne Society, and a benefit of this sort is held annually to obtain funds to carry on its purposes. Mrs. Daniel F. Downs is the president and among the officers and members are Mrs. Ansel Phelps, Mrs. Lowell Lincoln Jr., Mrs. Henry Suydam Satterlee, the Misses Annette B. Boardman, Martha Ellery Carter, Emily L. Norris, E. Evelyn White, Margaret Armstrong, Laura Dudley, Virginia Hollins, Mary F. Ogden, Emily Scott and Mary Young.

Among the honorary members are Mrs. Eben Wright, Mrs. M. Banks Taylor, Mrs. F. Norton Goddard, Mrs. McDougall Hawkes, Mrs. David A. Clarkson, Mrs. Turner Foote, Mrs. Clinton Gilbert, Mrs. Horace Grannis, Mrs. Frederick P. Koppel, Mrs. D. Appleton Pearson, Mrs. Philip M. Rhinelanders, Mrs. Keitt P. Walker, Mrs. T. Tilsen Wells, Mrs. Augustus F. King, Mrs. John Henry Livingston, Mrs. Augustus D. Porter, Mrs. Guy Richards, and the Misses Madeleine Le Roy Satterlee, Elizabeth Little, Harriet Swan, Sarah Gardner, Clarisse Livingston and Mary Horn.

Applications for tickets for the concert may be made to any of the officers or members.

What promises to be one of the most interesting charity entertainments of the season will be the performance of the two act musical comedy called "Perplexities of the Producer," which the Junior League will give in the Plaza ballroom on February 8 and 9. The Junior League entertainment is an annual fixture for the debutantes of the season, in aid of their work in the hospitals and in settlements, and they are looking forward to it. The comedy has been especially written for the members, the book and lyrics by James Taylor and the music by Albert Ginstenberg. Just what the plot of the comedy is will not be made known in advance, but it contains numerous amusing situations. The cast and the chorus will give young men of society who will also lend their assistance.

Among those who will have principal parts are the Misses Margaret Trevor, Kate Gordon Willis, Priscilla Bull, Tesson Thayer, Margaret Wagstaff, Camilla Morgan, Mary Brooks, Louise Chappell, Edith Logan, Audrey Osborn and Marjorie Wiggan.

Miss Pauline Clarkson, the newly elected chairman of the Junior League, is assuming general management of the entertainment. The other officers assisting are Miss Julia Edey and Miss Margaret Overton.
